EASTERN NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

The Pacific Mail Loan.

New York, August 27.—Following are the latest and most authentic particulars in regard to the situation of affairs between the Pacific Mail and Panama R. R. Co. The Panama Co. agrees to lend the Pacific Mail Co. $500,000 on condition that the Pacific Mail Co. make over to the Panama Co. a clear bill of sale for the iron steamers Colon, Acapulco, Honduras, Costa Rica, Winchester and San Salvador, also that the Pacific Mail Co., charter these steamers with the right to redeem them in twelve months by paying legal interest and insurance. The Colon is now in the Aspinwall trade, and the Acapulco soon will be, while the other four steamers are engaged in the Central American trade. Both the Pacific Mail and Panama Directors meet again to-morrow, when the former will either accept or reject propositions from the Panama Company.

To all Back-Pay Stealers—"Flee as a Bird."

New York, August 27.—John T Bird, member of Congress from New Jersey, to-day returned his back pay to the U. S. Treasury, including interest on a portion of the amount, which had accrued by investment.

L[illegible] by the Recent Flood.

New York, August 27.—Losses by the recent flood in the Delaware are estimated at $670,-[illegible] $500,000 may possibly fall on the Delaware and Chesapeake Canal, $100,000 on vessels and barges stranded on The Meadows, and $50,000 on the Delaware Railroad.

Di[illegible]

Nashville, Tenn., August 27.—A fire at Edgefield, Tennessee, this afternoon, destroyed six dwellings. Loss, $10,000; insurance, $8,-000.

A steamer from the scene of the wreck of the Bella Vernon, brings a number of her passengers [illegible] taken from the hurricane deck. One of the engineers, and a negro hand belonging to the Vernon, are missing. It is supposed they were drowned.

Not Quite a Corpse.

[illegible], August 27.—A dispatch from Westminster, Md., says that Wm. A. Mathias, aged 22 years, died, as was supposed, Sunday evening of brain fever, and the body was placed on ice. Yesterday, when the family had assembled for the funeral services, it was noticed that the skin had assumed a natural appearance, and examination showed that life was not extinct. Physicians were called and Mathias is recovering.

Report of a [illegible]—Probably a Hoax.

New Orleans, August 28.—A [illegible] from [illegible] Texas, to the Picayune says a stage driver brings in news that a large body of Indians surprised and captured Fort Sill, in Indian Territory, massacring women and children, and nearly half of the Fourth United States Cavalry.

Later.—The report from New Orleans of an Indian massacre at Fort Sill is undoubtedly a hoax. Gen. Sheridan has no such news, and the Fourth Cavalry, reported as suffering in the attack, is at Fort Clark, five hundred miles from Fort Sill.

The P[illegible] Mail Loan.

New York, August 28.—The Secretary of the Panama Railroad Company says the loan of $500,000 has just been consummated with the Pacific Mail Company, on the terms mentioned yesterday—viz.: a guarantee bill of sale on the stocks of the Pacific Mail Company's steamers. The Pacific Mail Directors held a [illegible] to-day and appointed Captain Bradbury and Messrs. Stebbins and Sage as a committee to close the transaction with the Panama company.

[illegible] Endorsement of Wo[illegible]

Lancaster, N. Y., August 28.—Henry Ward Beecher, in an open air meeting last evening, [illegible] Woman's Suffrage Convention, to about 2,000 people. The address was to have been made in the loft of the mill, but the supports of the floor yielding to the weight of the crowd all were obliged to go out of doors.

A Fire in Gloucester.

Gloucester, Mass., August 28.—A fire here last night destroyed five blocks. Loss, $75,000.

Suicide [illegible] among Bank Officials.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., August 28.—J. H. [illegible], Cashier of the First National Gold Bank of Tarrytown, has committed suicide.

[illegible] Disease in St. Louis.

St. Louis, August 28.—The Spanish fever, or [illegible], has appeared in the dairies of this city, and some twenty-five cows have died during the past two days. It is not known how the disease was communicated to dairy cattle, but the sanitary officers are making thorough investigations.

Miscellaneous.

New York, August 28.—There were twenty-five bids for Government gold, aggregating nearly $5,000,000, one and one-half million [illegible] at 15.40.

Specie shipments to-day were $115,000, principally in silver bars.

New York, August 28.—The promised report of [illegible] Watson, of the Erie Canal Company, was not presented to-day, it not being ready. The Directors did no business, owing to want of a quorum.

Duxbury, Mass., August 27.—The cable between Duxbury and St. Pierre, which had been interrupted for some time, has been repaired.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Lamentable State of Indian Affairs in Arizona.

Washington, August 27.—According to information received from a gentleman of high character in Arizona recent developments in that Territory indicate that there has been gross mismanagement, probably fraud, in the conduct of Indian affairs there. It is not alleged that the agents are all dishonest, but it is claimed that through some outside pressure they are being forced to receive supplies of an inferior quality at ruinous prices. Appropriations are being thus exhausted before the year is half gone. There is great probability that many Indians will be compelled to leave their reservations and General Crook's year of hard work will be annulled.

W. W. Anderson of Montana Territory, has been appointed agent for the Indians of Milk River Agency.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Fearful Storm at Cape Breton.

Halifax, August 27—Dispatches just received from Sydney, Cape Breton, state that a terrible storm of wind and rain has been raging since Monday, the severest known at Cape Breton for years. All the harbors are filled with vessels. Thirty vessels have been driven ashore at Sydney. Farmers have suffered heavily. Many buildings have been blown down. Crops throughout the country have been destroyed, and bridges washed away. Fifty vessels are, at Cow Bay, ashore. The Cunard steamship Alpha, from Sydney, put in there for harbor; with steam up and anchors down she succeeded in holding her anchorage. The breakwater at Cow Bay is badly damaged. The destruction to shipping in the bay is frightful. Dispatches received from Cow Bay this forenoon state that the gale is still raging there.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

From Madrid.

Madrid, August 27.—A dispatch from Alicante to-day, says the insurgent iron clads Numancia and Mendez Nunez left Cartagena harbor Sunday last and proceeded to the offing, to attack the Spanish Republican fleet under Admiral Lobos. The Government vessels could not be found, and the insurgent squadron returned to Cartagena. The Numancia and Mendez Nunez are now posted at the entrance of the harbor with steam up and ready for action. Vice Admiral Hastings Yelverton, commander of the British Mediterranean squadron, still retains possession of the vessels Vittoria and Almanza which were captured off Malaga.

From Paris.

Paris, August 28.—It is said the Government has been compelled to abandon the intention of holding the trial of Marshal Bazaine at Campiegne, as the town does not afford necessary accommodations for the court. No other place has been designated.

"Give us a Rest."

A special session of the Cabinet Council was held yesterday to consider what measure the Government may take to alleviate troubles caused by the high price of bread. It has not been made known that any definite action was determined upon. It is reported that the Government has authorized the abolishment of discriminating duties as to cereals without convoking the assembly.

Progress of the New Cable.

London, August 28.—Capt. Halpine writes from the Great Eastern that the broken cable had been raised at the point designated by the electricians, but upon testing the fault was found eastward. The Great Eastern has experienced alternate fogs and gales which made the work of grappling exceedingly difficult. Capt. Halpine is sanguine that the fault will soon be found and remedied.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

San Francisco, August 27.—The compromise ticket of the Democratic Legislative and Municipal Conventions, as agreed upon last night, is as follows: Named by Legislative Convention—Frank McCoppin, for Senator; H. P. Irvine, Stewart M. Taylor, T. W. Taliaferro, Jas Clark, James S. McCue and Michael Hayes, for Assemblymen. Named by the Municipal Convention—P. A. Roach, for Senator; Robert Howe, F. A. Gibbs, P. R. Ryan, Geo. H Rogers, John Steiglitz and A. Wason, for Assemblymen. The Committee also reported the Supervisors' and School Directors' ticket nominated by the Legislative Convention as ratified, with only one change. The Independents nominated W. Bartlett, for Senator; for Assemblyman, M. M. Estee, A. Wason, John Hammon, J. Wilmerding, J. C. Terrill, J. F. Cowdery, A. Hemme, James Patterson, D. Freidenrich, M. Hayes and John Yule.

San Francisco, August 28.—The sailor on the British ship Collodie, who on Tuesday last confessed several crimes and was locked up, to-day made a further confession in the Probate Court that he was one of the murderers of Nathan, in New York; that the murder was done at the instigation of Washington Nathan, a son of their victim, and that they got about $7,000 from Nathan. He described the location of Nathan's house, the particulars of the murder, and says he has some effects belonging to Nathan, at home in New York. He refused to give the names of his confederates. He was examined before the Commissioners of Insanity who could not determine whether or not he was insane. He was remanded to prison. He says he is a relative to Washington Irving, and that the murder was done with a carpenter's iron dog.

San Francisco, August 28.—The detectives still hold to the theory that J. T. Irving, who confesses to having been implicated in the Nathan murder, is insane. In conversation with the prisoner to-night he scouted the idea of insanity. He says that he is sane, and that, so far from desiring to get a free passage back to New York, he is a fugitive from justice from Brooklyn, where he committed a burglary and got shot in the back. He asserts that two men were with him, and that he has in his possession documents which he can produce whenever the authorities will guarantee the safety of his own neck. There are several gentlemen in the office of the Chief of Police who say his statement that young Nathan was a gambler is wholly false. Captain Lees contends that Irving's story does not coincide with published accounts of the murder. Irving does not want to go to Stockton. He says that the officials will make a great mistake if they send him there. He certainly seems perfectly sane.

Special police officer Orem, who struck a drunken man with his club a few nights since, inflicting severe wounds on his head, was convicted to-day of assault and battery.

Annie Teague and John Grant were tried in the Municipal Court to-day for adultery. The jury acquitted them without leaving their seats.

Interior California.

Gilroy, August 28.—Charles Maclay is now addressing the citizens of this place in front of the Hanna House.

The Portuguese that was killed by Tiburcio Bosques on Thursday night at Tres Pinos, has been identified as Bernardo Blourye.

Nevada, August 28.—The first Republican meeting of the campaign for this place opened to-night. Hon. John F. Swift is addressing a good sized meeting and some enthusiasm prevails. The Republicans are gaining every day and are confident of success in this county.

Benicia, August 18.—The ferryboat plying between this place and Martinez, burst a boiler this afternoon while on her way to Benicia and had to work her way back to Martinez. The [illegible] steamer took all passengers for that place on her up trip. The ferry will run as usual, another boat having been engaged.

The Tax-Payers are holding a political meeting this evening. Among the speakers are Gen. Frisbie, of Vallejo, Mr. McCune of Dixon, P. H. Walsh, Mr. Breck and others. The meeting is large and enthusiastic.

UTAH.

Salt Lake, August 28.—Colonel Wall was acquitted and discharged on his preliminary examination on a charge of perjury made by J. W. Haskins. Justice Clinton said that no intelligent jury would convict on the evidence adduced.

In the cricket match to-day the eleven of English gentlemen defeated the Salt Lake Cricket Club.

The Indians made a raid on Fairview, San Pete county, and ran off a number of head of stock. They were pursued, but found to be too strongly armed and located for successful attack. Aid has been asked. The Indians are probably from the Uintah Reservation.

NEVADA.

Austin, August 28.—Referring to the infanticide committed on the overland road west of Westgate on Tuesday last, it appears that two beggars were traveling in a freight wagon at the time the child was born, and that the man killed the child by throwing it out behind the wagon. The man is about 60, and the girl, his daughter, is about 14 years of age. The former is recovering from the effects of his attempted suicide, but the girl is lying at Sand Springs Station in a critical condition. She will probably die.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

From the Modoc Prison.

Yreka, August 28.—From H. W. Walbridge, who has just arrived from Fort Klamath, we learn the following:

The Klamath Indians express great indignation at the liberties allowed Scar-faced Charley and the scouts who deserted Jack and helped General Davis, declaring that if Capt. Jack and the others that were convicted are hung Scar-face and the scouts should never leave the country alive.

Not long ago, Scar-face and Bogus Charley were armed and sent after a couple of deserters whom they caught. This has incensed the soldiers so that they swear vengeance on these two worthies.

The general health of the soldiers was good as also was that of the Modocs, who were becoming considerably bleached out, owing to their confinement. Curley headed Doctor seemed more depressed in spirits than any of the others.

There is some fear of trouble with the Klamaths when the Modocs are executed. The following companies are now at Klamath: Capt. Hasbrouck's Battery "B," 4th Artillery; Capt. Kingsbury's Co. "E," 12th Infantry; Captain Noyes Co. "I," 12th Infantry; Capt. Pollock's Co. "F," 21st Infantry. Co. "B," 21st Infantry, and a company of cavalry from Arizona was expected there soon.

Captain Hasbrouck, with a detachment of [illegible] men, has gone to the scene of the massacre of Captain Thomas' command in the lava bed on the 27th of May, for the purpose of bringing the remains of Lieut. Cranston and others to Fort Klamath.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Victoria, August 28.—The Colonist says that immense gold deposits have been discovered in British Columbia, at the head waters of the Stickeen river, and 240 miles back from the coast line. A quantity of the dust was brought down to-day. This news was received by the arrival of the Gussie Telfair from the north early this morning.

THE TERRITORIES.

Rev. Norman McLeod is lecturing to the Sound people on Mormonism and the Mormons.

The first piles for the new wharf to be built by the railroad company at Tacoma have been driven.

Mrs Celia A. Blake, the first white person born in Jefferson county, W. T., died at Port Townsend on the 17th inst.

Rev. Stephen Bowers, of the Salem pastorate, has received 160 persons into the Methodist Church at that place within the past year.

The saw mill of Captain Wm. Utter, at Whatcom, was destroyed by fire a few days ago. Loss about $5,000. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

The Ochoco mines have proved a failure for two reasons: 1st, there is a lack of water; 2d, there is a lack of gold. The miners from that point have nearly all decamped.

C. J. Coots, Sheriff of Whatcom county, was so unfortunate, on the 19th instant, as to lose his house and barn (full of hay), orchard, fence and all of his farm improvements by fire.

A. L. Davis, of Lewis county, W. T., one day last week, cut and threshed 1,660 bushels of oats from a field of 26 acres. This is only one of the many instances of such yields in that county.

George S. Rogers, of Cypress Island, W. T., is supposed to have been drowned while returning to his home from Sehome. Some suspicion is felt that Indians may have had something to do with causing his death.

The City Council of Seattle met last Monday evening and passed an ordinance deeding to the Seattle and Walla Walla Railroad and Transportation Company all the tide flats south of King street, in that city, on Elliott's Bay.

The Tacoma Tribune says the mill company's wharf is being completely covered over and up high with lumber. The mill is cutting about 50,000 feet of lumber a day, and, as no vessel has been loading during the last fortnight, a large amount of lumber is now on hand.

From a private letter to Rev. S. Bowers, the Statesman learns that George Nickerson, son of Rev. L. M. Nickerson, formerly pastor of the M. E. Church of Salem, fell from a header wagon last Saturday and injured himself, it was feared, fatally. His injuries were internal.

There is a species of wild flax growing on the low lands of Ochoco which has superior lint. It grows about 4½ to 5 feet high. The seed is not so plump as that of the tame flax. There is but little doubt that very superior flax can be raised in all that section upon the low lands.

William Hathaway, tried at Seattle, who was found guilty of an assault with a dangerous weapon, and sentenced to three years' imprisonment in the California State Prison, was taken up to Olympia on Tuesday night by Deputy Marshal Wyckoff, and lodged in jail at that place.

The road from Lebanon up the Santiam and over the Cascades is in fine order. The boulders in the five crossings of that river are thrown out, and crossing is now good. Two stout horses with a good wagon behind them can now haul a ton from Lebanon to Prineville. There is no snow now on the mountains.

A survey has recently been made of the Colorado Desert, with a view to ascertaining whether it cannot be converted into a lake for the purpose of causing greater evaporation there and increasing the rainfall in the San Joaquin Valley. That more water would go up seems tolerably certain; but where it would come down again is doubtful.

From a gentleman just from the graders' camp, the Tribune learns of another "unpleasantness" between the white and Chinese laborers. A foreman felt called upon to correct a pig-tailed laborer, and the latter concluded he couldn't stand it. Force was resorted to, and the Celestials congregated for the defence of their comrade. They attacked the foreman in turn, with their shovels, sticks, &c., and rapidly got the advantage of him. The whites rallied in a body, and at last accounts a regular battle was in progress. Blood was flowing freely, but the whites were confident of the victory.

D. Newsom, writing to the Statesman, says: Sheep prosper and do well on Ochoco, Crooked river, and other grassy districts there. The wool on the low land sheep is excellent, but that on sheep pastured upon the up lands, is a grade less valuable. Very large clips were had this season, in that county, and hauled to Albany, where the owners received 22 cents per pound, cash, for it. Wolves are hard upon sheep in that section, and each drove must be herded by a shepherd and brought up at night. One man and a good shepherd dog can attend 1,000 head. Large lots of good graded sheep can be bought there at $2 per head.

Governor Booth may have made some enemies by his magnificent oration at Platt's Hall, but he undoubtedly gained a host of friends. The San Francisco Examiner puts it very sensibly when it says that although Gov. Booth is opposed by his party organization the great majority of the Republican party are with him. The San Francisco Bulletin gives the following account of a scene in the recent Democratic ratification meeting at Platt's Hall, during the speech of Jeremiah Clarke:

Now, said Mr Clarke, when Governor Booth and his large and respectable following [Loud cheers for the Governor.] Gentlemen, that sounds well, [More cheering.] I can join you in it. [Renewed cheering.] As the speaker was about to resume, a voice in the rear shouted, Three cheers for Governor Booth. And they were given with enthusiasm. Without finishing the sentence commenced, Mr. Clarke went on to discuss the tariff, [illegible] speaking about half an hour.

The New York World says that there is a project on foot, suggested by the Iowa outrage, to have each train of cars on the western [illegible] always provided with a [illegible] worked from the [illegible] car by [illegible] experienced gunner.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

There are 28 prisoners in New Westminster gaol.

Captain H. B. Good has received his appointment as Collector of Internal Revenue for the District of Victoria.

H. M. ships lying in the harbor are supplying the United States steamer Shubrick with coal, there being none at Victoria.

A man named Donnelly stabbed another, named McDonald, at Nanaimo, on Sunday last and has been committed for trial.

A very wealthy and intelligent Parsee merchant is in Victoria, and staying at the Colonial. He was a passenger by the Otago from Japan.

Last Monday evening a fire broke out on the roof of the main building of Hastings' mill. It was fortunately discovered in time to prevent much damage.

A cabin in Stout's gulch occupied by a miner named Lacy, was entered by a thief last week, and $370 in dust abstracted from a bed in which it was hidden.

One of the inmates of a Chinese brothel at the upper end of Barkerville, was badly cut on the head recently, by a countryman, and robbed of $300 in coin. The assassin made good his escape.

Captain Cooper has, we understand, received instructions from the Marine Department at Ottawa, to report upon the subject of the proposed lighthouse on Passage Island, (not Point Gray,) Howe Sound.

The body of James Greenush, a native of Manchester, England, was found floating in the Arm above Craigflower Bridge on the 23d inst. He had been employed on the Sooke road, and was on the railroad survey last year.

The New Westminster Guardian says a member of the Government is seeking a situation in the Custom House worth $100 a month, and advises the other Ministers to follow his example, as they cannot hope to hold their portfolios much longer.

The rapid and successful development of Lightning creek has created a demand for labor that cannot be supplied this season. A gentleman just down from Van Winkle, informs the Standard that one hundred men could easily find employment at $6 per day on the claims on the abovementioned creek.

Messrs. Bulkley and Dupont and four others have pre-empted six claims of the iron fields of Texada Island. The ore is of the very best description (magnetic), lies in exposed veins 100 feet wide, and traceable in many spots for a distance of 200 feet. In one place there exists a perfect mountain of ore. There is no doubt that, ultimately, these deposits will prove a source of great wealth to the Province.

The greatest discontent continues to exist in Kootenay with reference to roads and other matters. The road from Fort Shepherd will not be open this year, and Buckley's pack train from Hope will have to go round by Spokane. Several breaches of the peace have occurred at the diggings, but as there is no magistrate the guilty parties were let go. Indians steal openly from Chinamen and defy them, and there are grave fears of trouble. Debtors slap their pockets in the faces of their creditors and invite them to collect the amounts due if they can.

FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 29, 1873.

A CRITICAL SITUATION.

Referring again to the massacre of one hundred and twenty defenseless Pawnees, by eight hundred Ogalallah Sioux, it becomes a matter of grave moment to know what the Government proposes to do towards repairing the injury already done as well as providing against a repetition of the same. The Indian has always been an unruly element in our society, and it is a cause of profoundest regret that just as the humanizing influences of our civilization had begun to assert themselves over his savage nature, an occurrence of this kind should intervene to turn him back into the most cruel and revengeful customs of barbarism. It is not in Indian character to suffer a wrong of such gravity without seeking the bloodiest and—to his mind—most efficacious methods of righting it. This ignorant or malicious agent—Janis—has precipitated an Indian war of frightful dimensions, if, indeed, our Government can not persuade the Pawnees to leave the task of redress to it, and it is by no means likely that it can so persuade them. The feud between the Pawnees and the Ogallallah Sioux is of ancient origin. It is historic and has, before this, caused us much annoyance and the loss of many precious lives. This man Janis should have known this and he should have had sufficient forethought to anticipate the dreadful consequences of informing Little Wound that he had no authority to stay his murderous hand. He should have known, moreover, that for several years the Pawnees, as a tribe, have been on the best of terms with the United States, that they have rendered us valuable assistance as scouts in the marches of our scientific parties and exploring expeditions across the desolate wastes of the West.

We call these ignorant peoples our "wards," and we assume a guardianship over them which is burdened with a grave responsibility. The Government of the United States guaranteed to the Pawnees protection from their hereditary enemies when they entered into treaty negotiations, agreed to ground their arms, give up their [illegible] for reservation homes and in the [illegible] live in peace with the whites. A [illegible] or [illegible], but in any event criminal, agent has revived the dying animosities of these tribes. Nor does the evil stop with the aggressors and their victims, but it is likely to extend through all the tribes that claim relationship or have sympathy with the principals. Already several tribes have [illegible] their intention to join the Pawnees in a war of extermination against the Ogallalas, while the latter, itself a great [illegible], will [illegible] with abundant [illegible] ancient allies and weaker tribes, whom they may intimidate into submission, and it is not improbable that the smouldering embers of hate against the pale face may be rekindled. The Government can not afford to stand aloof, witnessing this general uprising of a formidable foe. Nor, as we have hinted, has it the right so to do. In justice to its "wards" and itself it is bound to step between the contending [illegible]. The gravity of the situation is appreciated at Washington. We are informed by a dispatch from the National Capital that "the officials regret that the friendship of the Pawnees for the whites should excite the hostility of the Sioux; but it is not thought the Government will [illegible] to keep peace among the tribes." This is a duty of the utmost delicacy, but we shall hope that it will be wisely adjusted and that the country will be spared the horrors of an internecine war among the Indians of the West.

[illegible] RAILWAY INSOLENCE.

Under the caption of "Another Railroad Extortion," the New York Times discourses sensibly on the old question of the right of railway companies to refuse to receive through tickets on which the holder has seen fit to "lie over" for a short time at [illegible] station on the route. It is, [illegible], an arbitrary and [illegible] one to which the travelling public is continually subject. Rather than be put to the inconvenience of being ejected from the train, loss of time, or annoyance and expense of a lawsuit, the peaceable citizen submits to the bold infringement on his rights, pays his [illegible] fare and shuns the liability to other [illegible] of a similar nature. The story of Cole[illegible]'s successful contest with the New Haven Co., as narrated by himself in the Atlantic Monthly is encouraging to all who have suffered as he did. And more recently, in the case of a gentleman resident in Paterson, N. J., a railway company has attempted a repetition of the outrage. "He had bought a through ticket to New York, but finding occasion to stop over for a late train at Newark, was met on resuming his journey with a demand for repayment of his fare under penalty of expulsion." Declining to submit to the extortion he was put off at Newark Meadows. The Times says he is a wealthy gentleman and hopes he will not allow this occasion to pass without testing the right of an insolent corporation to override the rights of its patrons without paying heavily for it. Of the law involved in a case of this kind the Times says:

> When the passenger buys and pays for his ticket to his destination, he completes a contract for his conveyance over that specified route within a reasonable time, to be determined by his own, and not wholly by the company's convenience. That contract is not in the slightest degree infringed by a stoppage on the way, nor is the company at all released thereby from its obligation to carry the ticket-holder to the point where they have been paid to carry him. The principle seems so clear that only the defiant consciousness of power, and a reliance on the general inertness of the average passenger, encourages the companies to ignore it.

The visit of Supervising Architect Mullett to the Pacific coast was the occasion of a somewhat startling disclosure relating to the construction of the new mint at San Francisco. It seems that the person who secured the contract for construction, presented to the awarding officer a magnificent specimen of stone which, as he said, came from a quarry in British Columbia. His bid was accepted and the contract awarded to him. It now transpires that the article which has been used in building is vastly inferior to the sample shown. A local paper says "the two contrasted are as dissimilar as spongy slate and marble. That used in the building is full of serious defects. It is coarse; it will split and laminate easily in the direction of its lines of stratification; it receives moisture and softens, and, worst of all, it is formed of slaty layers, the tendency of which is to separate and fall on the outside." It is known that a swindle has been perpetrated. The contract price for furnishing and dressing the stone was $257,868 41, and Mr. Cullough, Superintendent of Construction, thinks the cost of the stone now furnished cannot be more than half as much. This is a specimen of a thing that is too common nowadays.

Our faith in the republic is revived. Nowhere but under the meridian blaze of a luminous, despot-hating, American Justice of the Peace could such even-handed justice be dispensed as recently fell to the lot of triumphant Mr. Jonas H. Gregg, of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. G. is human—intensely human—and therefore subject to the embarrassment of an unliquidated wash bill. The amount ($19 62) speaks volumes for the personal cleanliness of Gregg; and is not cleanliness next to godliness? Gregg's washerwoman, despairing of collecting her bill by the ordinary methods of dunning, sued him before a Justice of the Peace for the amount above mentioned. Jonas H. acknowledged the correctness of the account; but offered as an offset to it the following unique bill:

Mrs. [illegible], in turn, confessed the correctness of the allegation, but demurred to the amount. With a keen, artistic sense of equity in matters of courtship, the Justice overruled the demurrer and dismissed the case, nailing the costs on the imprudent cleanser of linen.

The public is hereby notified that at no time within the past four weeks has it been true that four-score Custom House officers in New York city were in danger of decapitation. The dispatch which we published some time since to the effect that a large number of names would be sent to Washington for removal from office, is declared by the N. Y. Times to have been "the innocent trick of a reporter to get up something lively during the dull season." The officers referred to are all noble gentlemen and with the exception of an occasional indiscretion like the seizure of $30,000 worth of diamonds for the purpose of extorting black-mail—as in Lancaster's case, last Monday—they are energetic and useful. Particularly so in political conventions.

A correspondent of the London Daily Standard, writing from the Eternal City on "Art in Rome" mentions in terms of highest praise Mr. Story's last work, "The Cumaean Sibyl," and says it possesses "that excellence which will make those statues a possession for all time."

offering the best security of any Fire Insurance Company or Association in the world.

THIRD—It can carry large risks, as its policies are re-insured by the above mentioned Companies, so that the PHŒNIX alone can carry the same line that all three companies would take separately.

FOURTH—It requires but one set of proofs in case of loss, thus giving thy security of three Companies without the trouble of dealing with separate Corporations.

On these solid merits, viz: Capacity to carry the largest risks, the amplest possible security, the simplest adjustment in case of loss, and the prompt and equitable payment of all just claims,

CITY.

BALLOON ASCENSION.—Agreeably to announcement [illegible] a member of W[illegible]'s Circus made the ascent in a balloon from the grounds on which the circus tent was pitched. About 7 o'clock the [illegible] air vessel was successfully filled with hot air and Mr L[illegible] attired in a light [illegible] comfortable suit of clothing for such a journey, took his seat on the bar of the trapeze attached to the balloon. The ascent was made in a beautiful style, the balloon taking a southwesterly course. After it had reached a height of about [illegible] it gradually began to descend and finally came down in the river nearly opposite the water works. A boatman seeing the air monster approaching the water rowed to the spot where the balloon struck and rescued the aeronaut, who had received a thorough ducking from his involuntary bath. The [illegible] came out minus a hat and shoes, and after having donned some dry clothing was driven to the circus grounds. The ascension was the first that had taken place here for several years, and consequently proved a sensation. Another trip to the clouds will be made this evening by the same adventurous fellow.

SPECIAL CAR.—For the special accommodation of the public Madame Bishop will give a matinee at Masonic Hall on Saturday afternoon. To afford the people of Oregon City an opportunity of hearing this prima donna whose reputation is world wide the Railroad Company have made special arrangements for that day only. At Oregon City an extra coach will be attached to the express train as it passes through from Salem to Portland. Persons who desire to attend the matinee, can get aboard the extra coach, come down and return on the same car in the evening by the express train. The round trip will cost $1 75.

CARE REQUIRED.—Through an inadvertency, the tickets printed for the first and third concerts to be given by Madame Bishop, are of the same color—blue. As this circumstance may lead to trouble and confusion with those who shall purchase tickets, it would be advisable to exercise care in their selections. The tickets for the first night are blue with the number of the seat and row marked in black ink. For the second concert the tickets are red. The tickets for the third and last concert are blue while the seat and row is marked in red pencil. With the exercise of care all trouble can be easily obviated.

EXTENSION OF FIRE LIMITS.—At the last meeting of the Common Council, the ordinance which was introduced some time ago for the extension of the fire limits in Portland passed. This extension consists of blocks 17, 18 19 20 21, 22 and 30, comprised within the limits of First and Second and Pine and Taylor streets. The ordinance came up on its third reading and was passed on Wednesday evening. It has not yet received the approval of Mayor Failing.

A SPECIAL TRAIN.—Gen Sprague, Vice President of the Northern Pacific Railroad, has made arrangements to send out from Kalama on next Monday and Tuesday a special railroad coach. This will be for the accommodation of the Ministers attending the Methodist Conference at Olympia.

SCHOOL BOOKS.—On the 16th of July the State Board of Education adopted an uniform series of text books for use in the public schools of Oregon. J K Gill & Co of this city, have already obtained them from the publishers and sent several large lots up the valley yesterday.

CHANGE IN TIME.—By reference to the advertisement of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company, the traveling public will observe that the time of the Monticello boat has been changed. Until further notice the Rescue will leave her wharf here at 7 o'clock A M instead of 8.

PRESENTATION.—Last evening Mr James O'Meara was presented by his friends, with an elegant gold headed cane, of beautiful workmanship, as a token of their esteem and friendship. Speeches were made and a general good time was experienced.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Fire limits extended.

Big game of base ball to-morrow.

Steamer to sail at 6 P M. Mails close at 5 15 and Express at 5.30.

Among the letters held for postage in the San Francisco postoffice on the 25th inst was one addressed to Miss Kate D Story, Portland, Oregon.

The bark Webfoot and schooner Superior were towed down the river yesterday. Both will load with lumber at [illegible] for San Francisco.

The freight train on the east side last evening brought down the following freight: 22 car loads of wheat, 4 car loads of hay, 1 car load of oats, 3 car loads of flour.

Mr H Hanson of East Portland, who returned a few days since from a trip to Denmark after an absence of 22 years, is likely to bring many immigrants to our State from that far distant land.

Forty immigrants reached here in the steerage of the steamer. All the men, with few exceptions and especially those who come direct from Europe, propose to engage in farming or stock raising.

AMUSEMENTS.

The opening exhibition of the great Parisian Circus was given last evening on which occasion the immense pavilion was crowded. Of the general performance, we can speak in terms of praise, while many of the individual acts of equestrianship, acrobatic feats, trapeze tumbling, etc, is worthy of special mention. We cannot omit the names of little Johnny Cook, Omar Kingsley, and the [illegible] Brothers in daring feats of horsemanship, of the Lees DuCrow Brothers, Harry Clark and others in acts of tumbling. The crowning act of the evening was the astonishing acts on the trapeze by Harry and Emma Clark, which won its meed of applause. This portion of the performance is alone worth the price of admission. Mr Harry Clark also exhibited the wonderful powers of his teeth and jaws in lifting a barrel containing forty gallons of water. The company possess a number of well trained horses and trick ponies. Altogether regarded this company is among the largest and best companies which have yet visited the State under the management of John Wilson, and is worthy the patronage of our public. Another performance will be given this evening.

SPECIAL CHURCH NOTICES.

Bishop J T Peck D D will preach next Sabbath afternoon at 4 o'clock at the [illegible] M E Church East Portland. Rev J W Miller will occupy the pulpit at 11 in the morning.

ANNUAL CONVOCATION

The Annual Convocation of the Missionary Diocese of Oregon and Washington Territory assembled in Trinity Church Portland last evening at half past 7 o'clock at which time Bishop Morris delivered his annual address. The following clergy were in the chancel: The Right Rev B Wistar Morris D D, Rev George Burton, Rev John [illegible], and Rev James Daly of Portland, Rev C R [illegible] of Tacoma, Rev John W Sellwood, Oregon City, Rev J R W Sellwood of Milwaukie, Rev L H Wells and Rev D [illegible] of Walla Walla, Rev J H Babcock of Salem, Rev P E Hyland of Port Townsend, Rev R D Nevius D D of LaGrande and Rev [illegible] Hyland of Astoria.

A large and attentive congregation listened to the annual address of the Bishop which we give below in full. It was announced that the Convocation would meet to-day at 9 A M for morning prayer after which they would proceed to business. Also that there would be Divine service at Trinity church this evening and a sermon by one of the visiting clergy. Also that there would be religious services on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. It was further announced that the new and beautiful church in which the Convocation is in session would be consecrated to the worship of the Blessed Trinity on Sunday morning next at the usual hour for morning service and that there would be a missionary service in the evening.

ANNUAL ADDRESS BEFORE THE EPISCOPAL CONVOCATION AT TRINITY CHURCH BY BISHOP MORRIS ON THURSDAY EVENING AUGUST 28TH.

Brethren of the Clergy and Laity: We meet in convocation to-day with the same number of clergy as last year though I have to report more changes in their several fields of labor than in any previous year. The Rev Dr Nevius resigned the rectorship of Trinity Church, Portland, on the 1st of July and was succeeded by the Rev George Burton. The Rev D'Estang Jennings, who had been some months at Walla Walla, takes Mr Burton's place as senior master at the Bishop Scott Grammar School. The Rev J. H. Babcock has resigned his missionary appointment at Corvallis and been elected rector of St Paul's Church Salem. The Rev Thomas L Dickey has resigned St John's Church, Olympia, and taken a letter dimissory to the diocese of California. The Rev R W Summers has resigned the charge of Trinity Church Seattle W T, and accepted a missionary appointment at McMinnville Oregon. The Rev [illegible] R Bonnell has removed from St David's East Portland and taken charge of a new mission at Tacoma W T. By the addition of Mr Jennings our number of clergy on duty is thus the same as last year. The Rev Dr McCarty has been canonically transferred from the diocese of Maryland to this jurisdiction, and is residing at Vancouver making the whole number of clergy 16—besides the Bishop two of these the Rev Dr McCarty and the Rev James L Daly—being without a charge. These changes leave vacant several important places, which I have been endeavoring to supply so far without success. I am conducting a constant correspondence with the Bishops and clergy of the East in reference to supplying our want of more laborers, but twelve months have passed, and as yet no one has been added to our number. Much of my time at home and on my journeys is given to this correspondence which from the multitude of letters written and the many hopes raised and disappointed has become a very weariness. This mission now presents four or five very promising points, where as many unmarried men could find abundant room for all their zeal and energies, gather in the scattered sheep and build up the church of Christ, be cheered and encouraged in their ministry and find an ample pecuniary support. But until we can have more men in our ministry who will forego the comforts of married life for the first few years of their service who will take some venture in coming into a new mission, and not require the conditions and peculiarities of their field of labor to be minutely described and arranged beforehand exactly adjusted to their notions and the amount of their salary to be definitely settled and secured these remote places will still remain unsupplied. I shall not stay my efforts, however, while any of these vacancies remain, for here as elsewhere

"Cast after cast by force or guile
All waters must be tried."

It will not be necessary for me to give in detail a history of all my travels and services during the past year, as much of this has been already published in the Oregon Churchman. I have extended my journeyings to all parts of the jurisdiction where we have an established mission, as well as to several points beyond, and have held service in as many as 10 places that I had never reached before. I have also made my usual visitation to Lewiston and Fort Lapwai in Bishop Tuttle's jurisdiction preaching there three times, and administering both the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's Supper.

CONDITIONS AND PROSPECTS OF THE WORK.

By the removal of the Rev Mr Babcock from Corvallis to Salem our ministrations are withdrawn from the whole southern part of the State or for the distance of 250 miles from Salem to the northern line of California.

In these lower counties we have at Corvallis the chapel and school house of the Good Samaritan, with ten communicants, the church dwelling-house and school-house with four acres of ground, of St Mary's Parish, Eugene City, with 13 communicants and St George's Church Roseburg, with some 10 or 12 communicants. At Albany we have two communicants, and at Monroe five. At Albany Mr Babcock reports an attendance of 40 persons at his services, and 50 at Monroe. At Oakland 18 miles this side of Roseburg, there are a few families of church people, who are anxious for the establishment of our services at that place. At my visitation there in June, with the Rev J W Sellwood, I held two services and visited a number of families in the town and neighborhood. I obtained from the town proprietor the offer of two building lots, and much interest was manifested in the proposal to erect a church and establish regular services.

Roseburg has improved very much since my last visit, and as it will probably be the southern terminus of the Oregon and California Railroad for some years, it will doubtless continue to grow. A clergyman settled here could easily embrace Oakland and its neighborhood in his immediate charge, while he would have as a more outlying district a wide stretch of country in the southern and western counties of Jackson, Josephine, Curry and Coos. By the completion of 200 miles of railroad south from Portland this part of the State is much more accessible than heretofore and I shall endeavor under our system of "Missionary Appointments" to supply it with as frequent services as possible. The great expense of traveling is a serious hindrance however, to as vigorous a prosecution of this kind of work as might otherwise be made—a single trip to Roseburg costing over $30.

The most of these appointments have been filled by the Rev J R W Sellwood, who is our Missionary at Large and who has given his services during the past year to Salem, Jefferson, Eugene City, Roseburg, Philomath, McMinnville, Oregon City, St Stephen's Chapel, Trinity Church, St David's E P, and St Andrew's Kalama. I have been compelled to call frequently upon others of the clergy—some of whom are not missionaries in the strict sense—to aid in this branch of our work and take this occasion to thank them all for their services which I know have oftentimes been rendered at no little personal inconvenience. And yet I do not promise that I shall not renew these calls for the future, but rather intimate that they may be more frequent, in some cases than during the past year. With the vast field that we have to cultivate and the difficulty in obtaining clergymen, all should aim to extend their services to the regions lying beyond as far as possible. Mr Babcock reports that in accepting the call to the charge of St Paul's, Salem, he has agreed with the Vestry that one Sunday in every [illegible] months shall be given to missionary duty at some other point. This is a very good arrangement and [illegible] taken in other cases largely increasing our missionary services.

In the month of [illegible] last the Rev Mr Bonnell made at my request a missionary excursion into the [illegible] western counties [illegible] Marshfield, Empire City, [illegible] and Ellensburg. His journey took him among the [illegible] and least populous portions of the State and was made with much toil and [illegible]. He baptized several children and [illegible] the toil that gladly welcomed the ministrations of the church [illegible] books and newspapers have been sent [illegible] them and [illegible] between them and the [illegible] church. It would be well if we could thus [illegible] all the remote settlements in this wide region even with only occasional ministrations, cheering and supporting the members of our own household with the familiar services of the Church and every day gathering their children into the [illegible] and bearing to all these lonely and scattered families the promises and consolations of the blessed Gospel. But with our present force we must [illegible] to this important work [illegible] with the reflection that year by year we are widening the area of our services and steadily diminishing the extent of land that remains to be possessed.

EASTERN OREGON.

My visit to this part of the Mission has been a [illegible] one of much comfort and encouragement. During the six months previous Mr Wells had made several visits to Grand Ronde valley, interesting many people in our services and awakening an ardent desire to know more of a system which seemed to commend itself to their judgment and affections. Mr Wells joined me on this visitation at Walla Walla making a journey by private carriage of seventeen days into and through the southern [illegible] country east of the Blue Mountains. We held services at Weston, Pendleton, La Grande, Cove, Union, Sparta, Eldorado and Baker City. At La Grande we organized the Parish of St Peter's and obtained the gift of two valuable building lots and a subscription of $1,0[illegible] for a Church. I confirmed here [illegible] persons. The Parish begins its history with [illegible] communicants, among whom are the seven appointed vestrymen. To the subscription of $1 [illegible] made in La Grande I was enabled to add $400 from funds placed in my hands by a generous lady of the Diocese of Western New York for the purpose of aiding in the erection of a Church in this missionary field to be called St Peter's. The assistance was a great encouragement and stimulus to the little congregation at La Grande and to it their success has been largely due. If I had the same amount of means at my command for other undertakings, I could name four or five places where a Church costing $2,000 or $2,500 could be built in the next year. Besides the confirmations at La Grande one person was confirmed in Baker City, three at Union and ten at the Cove, making 31 in this part of the Mission. At the Cove the Holy Communion was administered to ten persons. The community here is entirely a farming one without as yet any house of worship. We have a few earnest people among them one of whom offered to pay $600 a year toward the salary of a clergyman. Sparta and Eldorado are both mining towns, almost entirely destitute of religious ministrations. Our services were well attended by a well behaved and attentive congregation of miners. At Baker City also much interest has been awakened. We were offered there a choice of building lots and substantial aid in the erection of a Church. There is a small band of Church people there who will do all in their power to sustain regular services. Baker City seems destined to become the largest town in that part of the State and yet there is not in this place, nor in the surrounding country a Protestant Church building of any name or character. Feeling the great importance of immediately occupying this portion of the field while still there I wrote to the Rev Dr Nevius who was about to relinquish the Rectorship of Trinity Church, Portland, proposing that he should spend the next three months at least in this region and report to this Convocation the results of his labor. He gave a prompt and willing reply and entered as soon as practicable on the work. I make the following extracts from his report:

"Nothing has gone wrong and the work is full of promise. In every one of the four stations, if a church building could be put under way many seeing a sure prospect of continuance of services, would flock to the Church. There are so many sad and even vile reactions against excessive sectism, which has swept the country, that the Church is looked to as a refuge. Yet men in their ignorance of her are not sure she will float. To them she only as yet looks as if she might, and they are only half disposed to try her. Only knowledge is wanting and the grace of God to show men their need of salvation. The present condition and prospect of our work in the Grande Ronde and Powder River Valleys furnishes an illustration of the good results to be obtained from an aggressive missionary policy. Save for the last three months, we have had no services there except those during the three brief annual visits of the Bishop and those of the Rev Mr Wells residing seventy five miles from the nearest point and separated therefrom by the formidable Blue Mountains. And yet we can now number over fifty communicants, have one organized Parish waiting only for the architect's plan to build their Church—and the prospect of good congregations in two other places. Surely the Lord hath blessed our labours here, whereof we will rejoice."

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

I think I am not over sanguine in claiming also, that in the Eastern portion of this Territory our labours have met with the most encouraging returns. When I first visited Walla Walla three years ago it required no little inquiry and search on my part to find two women who were known and acknowledged members of our Church. When I was there last year I found an earnest, live congregation but it was crowded into a close uncomfortable untidy upper room. All the property they possessed was a bare lot. Now they occupy a spacious and beautiful church admirable in design and execution and the pride and ornament of the town. On the rear end of the lot stands also a neat two story school house where are daily gathered over thirty girls in a church school of high grade. At the other end of the town Mr Jennings was conducting a boys school—which though now with another teacher is still under Mr Wells management and direction. The congregations on Sunday were large and attentive, and with their hearty and inspiriting singing and responding all things bore much the aspect of a long established Parish. God has surely blessed our brother's labours there, and greatly strengthened his hands in the faithful co-workers He has given him. But now He has also tried his faith and patience. On the 31st of July his dwelling house was burned with the loss of all the books and furniture it contained, save one piano. The school is to go on in another building I trust without any serious embarrassment, but this is a heavy loss for such an enterprise in its infancy and our brother should be generously aided in this trying emergency.

I spent the month of July in the visitation of the churches and missions on Puget Sound holding service at Olympia, Seattle, Port Townsend, Port Ludlow, Tacoma and Mahon's School house on Nesqually Plains. Since my last visit to Seattle the Congregation there have built a small but comfortable Parsonage on the same lot on which the Church stands. There was a debt still remaining of $287—which with the Bishop's subscription of $50 was liberally provided for by the members of the Parish. I trust that Mr Summers's resignation will not leave this church long vacant. Seattle is so far the largest and most important place on the Sound. It is central to several milling towns, where missionary services should be held and with its Church and parsonage completed and paid for will I trust soon become independent and self supporting.

At Port Ludlow I found a very interesting work in a flourishing Sunday School and regular lay services conducted by Mr Hiram Burnett. Before the evening service in the Good Templars' Hall I catechised the children of the Sunday School and have seldom found a school better instructed in the catechism. There are about [illegible] pupils in the school many of whom are the children of Indian mothers, and it is the testimony of all that they have greatly improved in temper and deportment since Mr Burnett began his work among them.

Fifty or sixty persons attend the services every Sunday evening who join heartily in the prayers and responses and listen with interest to one of Mr [illegible] or Dr [illegible]'s excellent sermons. These lay services and this Sunday School conducted by one person are the only religious services now held in this place except the occasional services of Mr Hyland of Port Townsend and their value is recognized and acknowledged by all. How [illegible] laymen are there throughout our missions who are suffering this one talent to be [illegible] in a napkin [illegible]

At Port Townsend I confirmed two bright and intelligent looking girls who were also the children of Indian mothers. They had been in the Sunday School [illegible] and were commended by their teachers for their good character and conduct. One [illegible] half breeds was confirmed here last year and has since lived an exemplary Christian life. We have little opportunity here to reach the pure Indian [illegible] with our ministrations but these half breed children [illegible] frequently within our influence [illegible] with special interest that we [illegible] heaven would who hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth.

On the [illegible] of July which I was still on [illegible] Puget Sound and the Commissioners of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company announced that Tacoma on Commencement Bay had been selected as the western terminus of that road. Knowing that this announcement would draw to that place a large number of people eager to share in the fortunes of the rising city I made as early a visit there as practicable—on the 23d—appointing a service for the following Sunday the 27th. A few days previous to this I had received a letter from the Rev Mr Bonnell offering himself for missionary work at this point—if I thought it advisable—without any pledges or promises of support save those made by Him who had first called him into His service. I thought well to accept this offer and accordingly announced at my first appointment that from that time on regular services might be expected. Mr Bonnell met me there on the following Tuesday the 29th when having secured the use of a lot we contracted for the immediate erection of a temporary chapel which was ready for its first service on the 10th of August. It stands in what is known as "Old Tacoma" and though built of rough unplaned lumber it is with its high pitched roof and cross, neither an unseemly nor an unchurchly looking building. Up to this time the congregation at Tacoma have not asked any assistance manifesting a most commendable desire to rely upon their own resources. They have organized a parish with the name of St Peter and for their brief history have shown an earnest spirit that promises well for the future. This chapel will serve every purpose till the new town is fully laid out and opened and we are ready to undertake a permanent church. In the meantime we shall occupy the ground with the regular services of the church and be gaining strength that we could not have without it both [illegible] habitation and a name. If the expectations of the projectors of this town are to be realized it will be well for the church to be early on the ground with her restraining and sanctifying influences, to offer a home and shelter to her own children that gather here in the interests of trade and commerce and to testify to all of the paramount value of those things that pertain to the kingdom of God. Happy had it been for the best interest of the people of this coast if the Church had always been abreast of the plans and efforts of men in the pursuit of earthly riches and been ever ready to say to them, in the flush of success or in the depression of loss and disappointment Here are the only treasures worthy your supreme regard and eager efforts. How many broken hearts had been saved and how many blighted lives rescued from shame and dishonor. Let none fear then that we are premature in this undertaking. If the enterprise fail and no permanent population are attracted to this point we can withdraw at little cost having done our duty and vindicated our commission to follow men through all the avenues of life with the offer of heavenly riches whether they will hear or whether they will forbear. The proprietors of the new town of Tacoma have given us assurance that we shall have all the ground we need for a church building and parsonage, but in the meantime I have received the written engagement of a private owner of property there to give us two town lots for any other church purpose that may be desired, and I am seeking to extend this list among the owners of land there that they may have an early opportunity to consecrate a portion of their expected gains to God's service.

The interior of St Andrew's Chapel Kalama has been entirely completed and provided with pews and chancel furniture. An excellent cabinet organ has also been obtained chiefly through the efforts of the ladies of the choir. Services have been kept up here every fortnight through our regular missionary appointments. The Sunday School continues about the same as last year. On St Bartholomew's Day August 24th I consecrated this Chapel being assisted in the services by the Rev J R W Sellwood and the Rev John Rosenberg.

The congregation of St Luke's Vancouver have so far completed their new church as to be able to occupy it regularly for divine service. It is a large and spacious building and when finished will be an ornament to the town, leaving none who see it to doubt or question its sacred character. The missionary there has manifested much energy and given much personal labor in carrying this undertaking on so far, and I earnestly hope that the day is not far distant which shall witness its entire completion.

On the Festival of the Circumcision I consecrated St David's East Portland to the sacred uses for which it was erected. A very comfortable library has been erected near by the church through the agency of the Rev Mr Bonnell which will always be very serviceable for the purpose intended or it would do even for the beginning of a future parsonage.

On the second of May I received from the Vestry of Trinity Church Portland, the gift of the building formerly used by their Sunday School, and had it removed to the corner of First and Caruthers streets for the purposes of a Mission Chapel. The building has been suitably fitted up and was opened for divine service on the first Sunday evening in August. There was a good congregation in attendance that evening and on every Sunday evening since. I propose to begin a morning Sunday School there also on the first Sunday in September. There are at present no public religious services of any kind in this part of the town, and there must be many families there with whom any proper use and observance of the Lord's Day are unknown. I want to inaugurate and carry on this missionary work for the sake of those who are to receive its benefits and for the sake of those who are to minister them. There are many members of our church in this town who have no active religious duties whatever and who should be heartily engaged in the work of carrying the blessings of the Gospel to those who through neglect or indifference are living without them. This Mission Chapel with its Sunday School, offers an opportunity for such to give and to gain a great blessing. I desire to have that part of the city thoroughly visited and canvassed and a vigorous missionary work instituted there, and I trust that I shall have all the volunteers from the members of our two congregations here that will be needed.

Chief among our improvements in building however stands this beautiful church in which we are now assembled. On Sunday morning it is to be duly consecrated to the service of the adorable Trinity—Father, Son and Holy Ghost. It is not always, even in older and abler communities that so complete and well appointed a church is so speedily erected. And with its correct architecture and fine finish, its beautiful font, altar service and chancel furniture, its superb organ, and noble bell—the gift of one of the founders of the Parish and its constant friend—it bears unquestioned evidence to the taste and liberality of the congregation. The beautiful memorials which it contains of your first Bishop whose name you will ever cherish and of your earliest missionary [illegible] illustrious zeal and piety associate it with a most interesting and honored period of your history. There was much of the spirit of the Confessor in the service and labors of both these heralds of the cross and all will testify that they loved not their lives unto the death. In all time to come conspicuous in the annals of the church in Oregon must stand the names of Scott and Fackler. It is of such we say—

They climbed the steep ascent of Heaven
Through peril toil and pain
O God to us may grace be given
To follow in their train

SCHOOLS.

St Helen's Hall passed through the year with very encouraging results. It numbered [illegible] pupils and nine teachers. For the progress made by these pupils in their studies and for their general improvement in deportment and in the tone and spirit of their conduct this has been altogether our best year. We can but hope that the future will be marked by the same encouraging result. Our chief regret in connection with this school is that we are not able to reach a larger number of pupils with its advantages. To do this we would gladly reduce the fees if prudence would allow. But as they are it requires the most watchful care and attention to keep its expenses within its receipts.

I am now [illegible] scholarship endowment first for the use of the daughters of the Clergy and then for such other daughters of the Church who with rare talent and moral qualities are yet without the pecuniary means to acquire a thorough and finished education. One such full scholarship has been founded [illegible] known as the "Mary Butler Scholarship" and I have a good hope that others will soon be established by those who feel a special interest in the Christian education of the daughters of our land.

I am seeking to do the same thing for the sons of the clergy and other boys at the Bishop Scott Grammar School and have some promise of success [illegible]. The current school year [illegible] ninety [illegible] pupils with [illegible] teachers. A new wing has [illegible] erected [illegible] which furnishes two additional [illegible] rooms, a chapel and a large dormitory. A large [illegible] $4000 [illegible] other improvements have cost over $8000. One half of this sum was subscribed by the citizens of Portland and the other furnished by friends of our work in the East.

The city improvements on B street offer an opportunity to secure a fractional part of a block of ground to the south of our property between B and C streets. It would be very desirable to extend our lines that far and if the city will grant our petition to vacate the intervening portion of C street I propose to pay the assessments for this improvement amounting now to nearly $2,000. This would in time be a very valuable addition to our property and very desirable in view of any injurious or annoying use that might otherwise be made of these lots. But I assume the undertaking with no little anxiety, in addition to all the other pecuniary burdens that our work carries. This institution with its fine grounds and commanding position, its large and convenient buildings, its gymnasium and laboratory, its library, reading room and Chapel and with its efficient corps of teachers offers opportunities for the higher education and training of the boys of this country not easily surpassed. But to make this school what it should be, complete in all its parts and wide reaching in its benefit it must be more fully endowed. No similar institution in this State is sustained by its tuition fees alone. And in the older States all the leading Schools and Colleges are seeking and securing ample endowments.

Our Endowment Fund gained last year $[illegible] and now amounts to $[illegible], but this is by far too small a sum and too slow a rate of increase to meet the necessities of this case, and I must again urge this matter upon the attention of our people. The plan adopted of taking annual collections and subscriptions to this fund brings it within the reach of every member of this Church to take part in widening the benefits of this institution and making them secure for all time. Brethren when I consider the trifles and vanities on which Christian people lavish their money, it is a great grief to me that I have hitherto been able to secure so small an amount for this most important purpose. What object is there, that should come nearer a Christian parent's heart? In what undertaking should he have an earnest and abiding interest? For what purpose should he be glad to give his care, his attention and his generous constant contributions if not for this purpose? I plead with you my brethren to whom God has given the ability, not to suffer this undertaking to drag along as it has done for the past few years. Put this endowment this year up to $10,000—as a beginning and earnest of what you mean to do for the future and by God's blessing and favor we will have a school here that will repay you an hundred fold even in God's measures pressed down and running over.

The receipts for the publication of the Oregon Churchman last year were one hundred and fifty dollars less than the cost. This deficiency will occur again this year unless some more successful efforts are made to increase its circulation. I commend this subject to the attention of the Convocation.

BOOK DEPOSITORY.

Very little use has been made of the Book Depository in the past year. The difficulty of keeping a sufficient variety of publications without a larger capital, the heavy accumulations of unsaleable books and the serious inconvenience of unpaid accounts against parishes and Sunday Schools induce me to recommend the discontinuance of the Depository entirely. The facilities for receiving books by mail are such that each clergyman can order from the publishers any books that he may want with less trouble and far more satisfaction than he can get them through a poorly supplied Depository such as ours must necessarily be. I would recommend therefore, that each clergyman supply himself with the catalogues of leading publishers of Church literature, and order from them by mail all books that he needs for his Sunday School or in his parochial and missionary work.

And while upon this topic I would suggest the importance of a more systematic and constant employment of the literature of the Church in parochial and missionary ministrations. We have the richest treasures in this department that by care and system might be brought within the reach of whole communities who as yet know nothing of the doctrines, order and discipline of our Church.

I sometimes think that we err on the side of reserve and caution in bringing to the knowledge of the people what we believe to be the excellencies of the Church's system and are in danger of deserving the charge of putting our light under a bushel. If every missionary were to go well armed with Church books and tracts into every town and village he enters, and leave not a house or family without an opportunity of knowing what the system of the Church is and why it is so, I believe the most signal results would follow. We see how old prejudices and oppositions give way under the light of knowledge, till one by one what used to be considered the [illegible] peculiarities of the Episcopal Church are gladly adopted by many religious bodies who once repudiated them with great earnestness. This entire system we believe will address itself with the same results to unprejudiced, intelligent and discriminating minds in all places and needs but to be known and understood to be widely acknowledged by those who love Scriptural truth, primitive and Catholic order, and the beauty of holiness.

Our Chinese school has been carried through the year with increased numbers and with increased interest. The whole number of names for the year is 97 though with a very variable attendance. On Sunday evenings it has been as high as 52, with an average for the winter and spring of over 30. During seven months of the year we have also had a week night school with an average attendance of 12 to 15. On Sunday evenings the pupils are taught Scripture reading, the Creed, the Lord's Prayer and the ten commandments, and take a lively interest in all their lessons. In a few instances their minds seem to be opening to the reception of the spiritual character of our holy religion and I hope that soon one or two will prove themselves proper subjects for Christian baptism. Their eagerness for knowledge, their intelligence, their docility of deportment and their gratitude for the labor and attention bestowed upon them, make this a most pleasing and interesting work. It is surely a work that should commend itself to all true Christian hearts.

God in His Providence has brought these heathen to our door. We need not go abroad at great expenditure of time and money to find them. In their darkness and ignorance of true knowledge in their weak and helpless condition against the violence and brutality of those who claim to be their superiors they appeal to every [illegible] and generous sentiment of our nature for instruction, protection and defense.

This is not the place nor the occasion to enter into the discussion of questions concerning their presence here, of the merits of the [illegible] treaty under which they come or of any schemes favoring or opposing the use of their service and labor. It will be a matter of surprise however to many of us if this enlightened and Christian people after having for a hundred years proclaimed this country to be the refuge and asylum for men of every name and nation, shall now in this boasted nineteenth century in the very [illegible] and pride of her power and success close her doors against this benighted and degraded race as if she had neither the power nor the wisdom to protect herself and her children against their evil designs and influences.

It will be a matter of surprise to some of us again—not profoundly versed in the science of politics [illegible] that the leaders and rulers in our own temporal and political affairs should also seek to do so unwise a thing.

In a land like ours furnished with unbroken forests and teeming with latent and undeveloped wealth only waiting for the hand of skill and labor to touch and tap it at a thousand points that it may pour out its exhaustless treasures for all [illegible] the poor man and his children, it would be a marvel indeed if those we have chosen to protect our temporal interests should say to this source of efficient and available labor we have no room [illegible] let these things be undeveloped [illegible] generation shall rule the land.

I and my clergy are under special obligations to the Oregon Steam Navigation Company, to the Willamette River Transportation Company, to the steamboat companies of Puget Sound, to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company and to the Northwestern Stage Company for complimentary or half fare tickets over their various routes of travel. These facilities are of very great help in our missionary work and are always accorded with such a cheerful and generous spirit as to make them doubly valuable.

This is now the fifth time that you have been called together in Convocation since I came among you. Four full years of labor have passed and made their record for all [illegible] and fidelity or of our carelessness and [illegible]. That much encouraging progress has been made all I think will admit. It could [illegible]

The nine new churches and chapels that have been built, St Helen's Hall, the Bishop Scott Grammar School and the Schools at Walla Walla, the three hundred [illegible] confirmed, the $30,000 contributed for religious and benevolent uses, the $100,000 and over of permanent church property acquired, together with that higher and better work in human hearts which no figures can represent and which time itself cannot destroy, are results for which we can truly thank God and take courage.

And yet this is surely not all that we have desired to do—possibly not all that we might have done. But there are many hindrances to our work not known to those who look upon it from a distance, and oftentimes not appreciated by those more familiar with it. The small population of our Mission—there being less than 125,000 in the whole jurisdiction—the necessarily small and widely scattered communities in which they live, their changeable and migratory habits and disposition, the accustomed and hereditary indifference of a large class of our early settlers and later immigrants to all religious institutions, together with the depressing and blighting influences of a multitude of Christian sects and a legion of semi infidel and infidel societies, striving for the suffrages of the people—these things accumulate difficulties in our way, assuring us that we are to have "long patience, waiting for the earlier and latter rain of God's grace and favor, and for the slow developments of His time, who measures not months and years as we do.

A very natural question here would be What do we most need to do and to avoid, to encourage our hearts in this work and to put it forward more rapidly, if such be our Master's pleasure? I would say then, in the first place that we need on the part of all, clergy and laity a more constant and abiding realization of the Divine and heavenly character of our work in all its departments, bearings and relations. That we all hold this as a fundamental principle is of course true, but yet, in the details of our work—in the devising of modes and plans, in the use of means and appliances, and in the estimate and value placed upon results or upon the lack of immediate visible and signal returns for our labors—it is most needful that the thought should ever be on our minds that the kingdom which we serve is not of this world. God's thoughts are not as man's thoughts neither are His ways as man's ways. We must ever take care, then that we seek not to promote this Divine, heavenly kingdom by any unheavenly principles or practices. The agencies we employ, the motives we appeal to, the end to be gained, should always be such as the pure and holy One we claim to serve will own and honor. How sad and fatal, then will be our mistake if it appear at last that in all our zeal we were seeking and serving self, our own party, our own pride or reputation, and not the honor and glory of our God. With the conviction of the Divine authority and power of the kingdom we seek to establish, ever on our minds, we shall go about all our duties with a calmness and confidence not easily disturbed. We shall meet opposition with patience and meekness. We shall bear defeat or delay in our plans without irritation or complaint, knowing that He who rules over all is wiser than we, and knows the best way and the best time for the accomplishment of His own purposes.

Ever acting under this conviction, we shall be alike unmoved by the praises or censures of men, and only anxious that our motives and our conduct meet the approval of Him who called and commissioned us to this service. We shall then never let that miserable suggestion enter our minds that we are to be pleasers of men in anything we do or say. We shall have altogether another rule by which to guide our conduct, and by which to test our motives. Here lies, perhaps, one of the most powerful temptations that can beset the way of a minister of the Gospel, to make himself popular, to draw men to him, to accommodate his practices, his opinions and his preaching to the prevailing opinions, prejudices and ignorance of those he seeks to win to his cause. What a shameful prostitution of [illegible] office this; what a deep dishonor [illegible] to his God will only appear at the great day of account.

This divine and heavenly kingdom [illegible] which and for which we serve, must not [illegible] be advanced [illegible] by any courting of popular favor, by any concessions from the law and rule of its head, by any weak accommodation to the lax and loose sentiments concerning religious doctrines and practices that prevail all about us. We are pledged to the maintenance of a positive, well-defined system—"the faith once delivered to the Saints," and that faith must not be compromised by word or act, no matter how powerful the temptation to gain power or friends with the inconstant and unthinking multitude. The minister of Christ must be gentle to all men, apt to teach, patient, courteous, making himself a servant unto all that he may gain the more, but he is to commend himself to the consciences of men, in the sight of God, in no other way than by the manifestation of the truth. While we do this, brethren, we need have nothing to fear. No criticisms or complaints of men need annoy or disturb us. No hindrances or delays in our most cherished plans need disappoint or dishearten us, for our work will prosper, and our reward come as God wills and appoints.

RELIGIOUS [illegible]

PERSONAL, LOCAL AND GENERAL ETC

(From the P. C. Advocate.)

Rev R. Booth, of Douglas county, left this city on Tuesday morning last for the seat of our annual Conference, intending first to visit Victoria, B C.

Rev H K Hines, Presiding Elder of the Walla Walla District, preached an excellent sermon in the Taylor street M E Church on Sunday morning last.

The Presiding Elders are requested to meet at the M E church in Olympia on Tuesday evening next at [illegible] o'clock to nominate the Standing Committees of the Conference.

Rev J. W. Miller, pastor of Walla Walla charge attended the Powell's Valley camp meeting on Sabbath last, and has been visiting since among his former parishioners of East Portland.

Revs J T Wolfe, N Clarke, H. B. Lane, J. W Kuykendall and others of our Conference, have arrived in the city en route for Olympia. We presume the attendance will be quite as large as usual notwithstanding the distance and pressure of the hard times.

The statistics of the Powell st M E Sabbath School San Francisco (Dr Wythe pastor), are as follows: Officers and teachers on roll, 33; scholars 280; total 313; average attendance, 200. Funds raised $438 72. Of this amount, $136 58 were on account of the Missionary Secretary of the M E Church to whom it will be paid through the pastor. There are 101 Chinese in attendance at the Chinese school.

Rev John Thompson, General Bible Agent for the Pacific coast, spent last Sabbath in the M E church in Salem preaching, to the great delight and edification of our people there. Brother Thompson has been one of the most successful agents the American Bible Society has had in the field. He spent eight years as agent for the State of Indiana previous to his appointment to this field, and those who know him best say no better selection could be made for this department of our work.

The fourth quarterly Conference for the Taylor street church was held on last Thursday evening. The pastor's written report was read and as usual was found interesting both in the matter and manner of it. The total membership was reported as 300. The following trustees were elected for the ensuing year: [illegible] Abernethy, William Masters, Dr W [illegible], W S Ladd, F J Northrup, F S Aiken, F S Smith, J K Gill. The following Stewards were nominated and elected: J F Clarke, Dr J S Dickson, J F Jones, J F [illegible], S G Bunting, J M Sparrow, William Connell, E Turner, J R Robb.

TO THE PUBLIC.

We are now getting on the way a new and fresh stock of fine Furniture which will be superior in quality and newer in design than the one destroyed by the fire and which we will offer for sale on advantageous terms. Meanwhile we are well prepared to supply the present demand from our temporary location corner of Fifth and Taylor streets near the U S Custom House. Respectfully,
HURGREN & SHINDLER

SOME people may become excited over the "terminus" of the Northern Pacific Railroad on Puget Sound but it does not disturb Beck & Waldman, corner Front and Washington streets in the least, as they intend to pursue the usual course to their customers and that is to sell goods at prices which will enable those with limited means to provide themselves with good clothing at a very small outlay of money. Parents should bring their children to this house for neat fitting suits.

PEOPLE'S PROTECTIVE ALLIANCE.

The East Portland Protective Alliance Primary No. [illegible] met at [illegible] on Wednesday evening, President Van Cleave in the chair.

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

The pledge was then read, and Messrs Wm Pody, Henry Pearce, J T Reynolds, W J Daily, C G Devine and John McIntosh came forward and signed and were elected members.

A GRAND BALL.

Mr Vokes, Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, recommended that a grand ball be given under the auspices of the Primary for the purpose of increasing the funds, also, that a committee of ten be appointed—with power to add such number of ladies of this city as they may deem proper—to be a Committee of Arrangements.

On motion, the report and recommendations of the Chairman were adopted and Messrs Anderson, Ross, Bradis, Devine, Barman, Moore, Collins, Berthold, F[illegible] and Vokes were selected to act as such Committee.

Mr Ross, who was appointed as a Committee of one to have a banner placed across the street, reported that he had all the necessary articles and would have it in place before the next meeting.

The Chair then appointed each and every member a Committee to notify absent members that the regular election of officers would take place at the next meeting and request their presence.

On motion of Mr Turnbull a Committee of three was appointed to select suitable "Labor Questions" to be discussed by the members at their regular meetings.

On motion the Primary adjourned until October 10th.

OREGON.

Wheat is being received in large quantities at Cornelius.

A new station, to be called Newtown, is to be established two miles east of Hillsboro.

Wm. Harrington has shown the Astorian a very fine specimen of coal croppings—which he found on a recent hunting expedition in the vicinity of Tongue Point.

Mr. A L. Stinson, resigned his position as Grand Representative from the Grand Lodge of Oregon I O O F, to the R W G L of the United States. His successor has not yet been appointed.

From a gentleman just returned from a protracted visit to Washington county we learn that a great deal of [illegible] prevails among the people in that section of our State. The majority of sufferers are children, and too much fruit is assigned as a cause.

The Oregon Central Railroad has reduced its freights from Cornelius to Portland, which took effect August [illegible]. Flour, grain and mill stuffs per car load is [illegible] to 12½ cents per 100 pounds, [illegible] 20 cents per 100 pounds; horses, cattle and hogs per car, $16, sheep, per car, $14.

A portion of H. J. St[illegible]'s surveying party, at work on the [illegible] in Astoria last Monday, and gave some very interesting notes of their work. They are exploring a [illegible] which is as [illegible] of cultivation in many places as the [illegible] and prairies of Illinois. Very many farms could be picked out where the land has been left by the hand of the [illegible] for the plow, no underbrush of consequence being in the way of work. The [illegible] is adapted to farming or stock.

The country on Crooked River and Ochoco is settling up with families and "[illegible]," and begins to [illegible]. It is ascertained that fine crops of wheat, oats, barley, corn and vegetables can be raised on all the low lands in that section. There is twice as much [illegible] this year as will supply all the settlers. [illegible] They had rains in June and July [illegible] we had them in Webfoot. High up Crooked river, near the [illegible] is much more frost in the [illegible] on Ochoco. There is enough land for cultivation in all the south part of Wasco county to sustain quite a population of producers besides stock-raisers.

The Statesman of Thursday says: The snag-puller, belonging to Uncle Sam and built for duty on the Willamette river, was [illegible] at the Salem [illegible]. The [illegible] commenced work about [illegible] ago at Corvallis, and has taken out all the [illegible] navigation in the river between that place and Salem. The boat will proceed down the river to-day, and will attend to anything in the way of snags between here and Oregon City on its way down. The Captain of the [illegible] informs us that he expects to be through with his work in the course of another month. This boat was built out of the money appropriated last year for use in clearing the Willamette. The amount we believe was $16,000. This year another appropriation was made by Congress of $3,000, which is intended to complete the work of removing all snags in the river between Corvallis and Oregon City.

The New Orleans [illegible] says it was ascertained on the 23d inst, that several large importing houses which had been heavily mulcted by the Government for revenue frauds had combined with the view of ousting certain high Custom House officials who have made themselves obnoxious to them.

Very positive information has been received at Washington to the effect that, notwithstanding the official denial on the part of that Government the Grand Duke of Hesse continues to pardon criminals on the condition that they shall emigrate to the United States.

FOR AN IRRITATED THROAT, Cough or Cold "Brown's Bronchial Troches" are offered with the fullest confidence in their efficacy. They [illegible] the good reputation they have justly acquired.

BRICK DUST DEPOSIT indicates kidney complaint. Check it at once. Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu, the Diuretic par excellence is a certain [illegible] for all diseases of the urinary organs and [illegible] system. Dr Helmbold is the only man who ever really utilized and extracted the preeminent virtues of Buchu. His preparation is as much superior to the so-called "Buchus" as [illegible]. In fact it never fails. Sold by druggists.

A great many people have asked us of late, "How do you keep your horse looking so sleek and glossy?" We tell them it's the [illegible] thing in the world; give Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders two or three times a week.

A gentleman in the eastern part of the State, who was about to have his leg amputated on account of its being bent at right angles and stiff at the knee, heard of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. After using it a short time his leg became straight and is now as serviceable as the other.

Severe spells of bilious [illegible], indigestion, chills and fever, diarrhoea, nervous headache and physical exhaustion are quite [illegible] at this season. These are visitations which everybody is anxious to avoid, and as a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will unquestionably fortify the system against them, the most valuable medical advice which can be offered at this time to persons subject to such complaints or at all subject to atmospheric changes is to commence taking this powerful vegetable alterative and invigorant without delay. Forty eight hours will not have elapsed after the first dose before a marked change will have manifested itself in the condition of the system. The ultimate result will be a habit of body so regular, a genial condition so vigorous that however unhealthy the season may chance to be the system thus refreshed and reinforced will be in the best possible trim to encounter it.

[illegible] season there was beyond all [illegible] oppressive lack of money in the [illegible] even the offer of best paper on high rates [illegible] to secure accommodations. This year while the same fact as regards [illegible] capital is not continued to exist the complaint of high prices for the use of money is still prevalent. We are sorry that the condition of our financial affairs furnishes [illegible] sufficient ground for such complaint. Our money market just now is in need of a limited amount of loanable funds at a rate materially lower than is current, not so much to conduct the ordinary business of the season as to repair the loss suffered by the late fire. Our city being small and so large a proportion of its business annihilated more or less affects the remainder and to meet the extraordinary expenses of rebuilding would draw away such a large sum from the usual channels of commerce that we could not but look for a stringent money market or a large curtailment of other business.

There seems to be at present no extended call for funds to move the grain crop though very likely the demand from that source will materially increase within the next fortnight. Business generally though not unusually brisk, is moving forward with some activity and presents an aspect that for the future is more encouraging than otherwise. Discounts are not maintained with that strictness existing some time ago but yet are beyond those which denote a healthy condition of trade.

Home Produce Market.

WHEAT—Notwithstanding the prediction that was made a week ago that material fluctuations in the price of this cereal would probably take place at a very early day no important change has as yet taken place quotations remaining steady at $1 70 ₩ cental. During the week now under review transactions have aggregated about 45 000 bushels, mostly for future delivery but this is hardly up to amount purchased the corresponding week of last year. Some fears are expressed that the rains of a few days past have damaged if not destroyed, a very considerable portion of the spring wheat but the earlier crops had mostly been secured. The ultimate loss will depend much upon the cessation of the showers.

FLOUR—From our dispatches elsewhere published it will be seen that San Francisco prices are firm at the advance. Our market has also been steady for the week past at $5 50 for best, and $4 75@5 ₩ bbl for outside and country brands. Superfine in fair demand at $4.

OATS—Trade in this cereal is very quiet no active present demand existing and buyers being cautious in the matter of making contracts for future delivery. We, however, hear of some purchases of the new crop on the new basis of 45c ₩ bushel delivered in sacks at this point. The aggregate of offers even at this rate has been comparatively small for the season.

BARLEY—The yield in our State this year will be larger by at least 25 ₩ cent than any previous year the crop being excellent and the acreage much larger than before. Movements as yet have been confined to small lots to supply immediate wants at $1 40@1 42 ₩ cwt in sacks.

FEED—Though no active or unusual demand is felt holders are disposed to work prices upward in some proportion to the advance in wheat, but as yet transactions have hardly been of sufficient volume to establish rates at any higher figure than were last given. Hence we quote our market firm at $17 50@19 ₩ ton for bran, $22@24 for shorts and $22 50@25 for chops, middlings etc.

HAY—The wet weather put some trifling check on the supply, but owing to slow demand prices remain without change.

POTATOES—Both from adjacent farms and down the river our city market is kept in full supply at 37½@40c ₩ bushel. No demand exists for shipping as yet.

ONIONS—The supply is short, and quotations firm at the figures given in our last report.

APPLES—Regular buyers are paying 50@60c ₩ box the latter only for best varieties boxes included. From wagons loose lots sell at 1c ₩ lb.

Puget Sound Shipping.

The bark Talavera and ship Ermina Alvarez, both from Port Gamble were in port at Valparaiso on July 15th.

Ten vessels were loading lumber at Port Gamble last week for various ports.

The Robert Cowan of Victoria, has been placed in the trade between Honolulu and Sydney Australia. She has been purchased we hear by Mr Godfrey Brown, formerly of Messrs. Janion, Rhodes & Co.

Shipping Intelligence.

The schooner Hera, which was spoken in north latitude 37° 40', longitude 135° 5' west, on the 14th inst. will be due here in ten days.

The Oriflamme, hence for San Francisco is announced to sail to-morrow (Friday) evening at 6 o clock.

It is reported that the Otago and Windermere two good sized ships, now at Victoria are under charter to load with wheat at this port for England.

LYON'S KATHAIRON

Only 50 Cents per Bottle.

It promotes the GROWTH, PRESERVES the COLOR, and increases the Vigor and BEAUTY of the HAIR.

OVER THIRTY YEARS AGO LYON'S KATHAIRON FOR THE HAIR was first placed in the market by Professor E. Thomas Lyon, a graduate of Princeton College. The name is derived from the Greek "KATHRO," signifying to cleanse, purify, rejuvenate, or restore. The favor it has received, and the popularity it has obtained, is unprecedented and incredible. It increases the GROWTH and BEAUTY of the HAIR. It is a delightful dressing. It eradicates dandruff. It prevents the Hair from turning gray. It keeps the head cool, and gives the hair a rich, soft, glossy appearance. It is the same in QUANTITY and QUALITY as it was over a QUARTER of a CENTURY AGO, and is sold by all Druggists and Country Stores at only 50 Cents per Bottle.

SMALL POX.

DOCTOR BORZFAU'S SMALL POX REMEDY SAMUEL CORWIN Proprietor can be procured at all the Drug Stores in this city at the present time. As this medicine is proving an inestimable boon to those afflicted with that disease no person should neglect the present opportunity of providing themselves with this valuable antidote.

Price ONE DOLLAR per bottle.

Portland Oregon Aug 22, 1873

Mr SAMUEL CORWIN—Sir: In justice to yourself and for the benefit of those who may be afflicted with the small pox I am induced to give publicity to the following facts. About the 20th of July 1873 I became very unwell having severe pain in my head back and limbs which continued to increase in severity for three or four days a very high fever set in and I began to break out on my face neck and body with what proved to be small pox. I procured of Dr Frestand of the Central Drug Store a bottle of your small pox remedy. Notwithstanding the severity of the attack I administered the medicine myself not in accordance with accompanying directions but in about double doses. In three days all pain and fever disappeared. My recovery was extremely rapid notwithstanding frequent exposures by moving about from place to place while in a high fever which is generally considered fatal in that disease and it is my firm conviction that under the ordinary treatment for that disease I would not be living to-day. I took of the medicine about [illegible] and a half bottles more perhaps than was necessary not wishing to discontinue until a thorough cure was effected.

PETER BURK

I know of my own knowledge that the foregoing statement is true in every particular.

Established in 1854 for the treatment of [illegible] and Seminal [illegible] Gonorrhea, Gleet, Syphilis in all its forms, [illegible] Weakness, Impotency [illegible] Diseases of years standing [illegible] Ulcerated Legs successfully [illegible]ed.

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing [illegible] he has returned from visiting the principal [illegible] of Europe, and has resumed practice at his dispensary 623 Kearney street, corner of Commercial San Francisco where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor [illegible] seeking out new remedies, and has [illegible] increased facilities for the alleviation of suffering.

Horrible [illegible]

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system [illegible] pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer [illegible] closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies [illegible] cared for and cured before it be too late. [illegible] immediately to DR GIBBON a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for [illegible] and who is certain to cure the most inveterate without mercury or any injurious drugs. [illegible] portant to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of the [illegible] careful of the many pretended doctors who [illegible] all cities publishing their skill in curing [illegible] in a few days imposing upon the public [illegible] the names of eminent physicians from [illegible] other places. Be therefore careful and [illegible] inquiry, or you may fall into the [illegible] charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequences of [illegible] This solitary vice or depraved sensual [illegible] practiced by the youth of both sexes to an [illegible] unlimited extent producing with unerring [illegible] the following train of morbid symptoms [illegible] combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: [illegible] low countenance dark [illegible] under the eyes [illegible] the head ringing in the ears, noise like the [illegible] of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness [illegible] the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to [illegible] quaintances disposition to shun society [illegible] memory hectic flushes, pimples and [illegible] tions about the face, furred tongue, [illegible] coughs consumption, night sweats [illegible] frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained [illegible] apply immediately either in person or by letter [illegible] have a cure effected by his new and scientific [illegible] of treating this disease which never fails [illegible] ing a quick and radical cure. Married Men,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who [illegible] ing under any of these fearful maladies, [illegible] forget the sacred responsibility resting [illegible] nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DR. GIBBON is responsible, and will give his patient a written instrument, binding him to effect a radical and permanent cure, or [illegible] charge.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon [illegible] symptoms length of time the disease has [illegible] and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the [illegible] with full and plain directions. By [illegible] Dollars coin in registered letter through the [illegible] office or through Wells Fargo & Co. a [illegible] medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union. All communications strictly [illegible]

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn certificates, deceive the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places were tradesmen and became too lazy to work [illegible] trades. Some are tinsmiths shoemakers [illegible] carriers, intelligence office keepers etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry. It will cost you nothing and may save you many [illegible] for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting [illegible] titles certificates pretended patients letters, [illegible] Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.
